CRU MISSIONARIES AT BUFFALO | June 2015

We are passionate about college students and we are sold on the idea of reaching every campus and every student with the Gospel. With 30+ campuses in our scope of western NY it can feel at times like we are never going to get there. But then I am reminded that it is God at work and He is the one that leads us and He is the one that opens the door to new campuses. And that is exactly what is happening at D'youville College.

D'youville is a small private college located at the heart of the trendy and arty part of Buffalo. I don't believe we would have thought about launching there in the Fall but God led the way through a student leader. Jennifer came with a friend to the Cru weekly meeting at Daemen this past year. And after her experience she said she felt like God was telling her to start a Christian group at D'youville and wondered if we could help her with that. Could we help her with that? Why of course, that's what we do! Then we found out that Joe, one of our Cru leaders who attends Buffalo State College, was going to transfer to D'youville. That's when we started to get really excited. Over the past few weeks we have been praying and planning with Jennifer and Joe to launch Cru at D'youville next Fall. Would you join us in praying for the students and faculty at D'youville and for Jennifer and Joe as they lead the charge in launching this Fall?

We finished up the school year with a big Backyard BBQ and Bonfire with music, backyard games, and lots of fun! Around 80 students came out from 5 different Buffalo campuses.

Dave(5) is our outdoors man. He is usually collecting wood for fires or trying tricks on his bike.

Abbey (7) just got her ears pierced! You will find her reading and rereading The Boxcar Children right now.

Pete (3) is growing up and learning to fish with the other kids. He is obsessed with anything superhero.

Madeline (9 months) is super smiley and is cruising on the furniture and will be walking soon!
