What Has Been Happening...

NOV
2006

Thank you for your prayers, we had a successful start to the school year. We had 2,800 freshmen fill out spiritual interest surveys with their contact info. We've had 800 to 1,000 students coming to our weekly meetings. We just had a fall retreat that we had over 500 students go to, at least 3 students came to know Jesus while others grew in their desire to faithfully follow Christ. At least one guys and girls bible study has started in every dorm. And this is how God has been using our Freshman Bible Studies....

Girls Sierra Madrea Dorm

Sunday afternoon, after a long week on campus, my co-leader and I went to follow up with girls in the dorm who indicated they were interested in a relationship with God. We were both tired and didn't feel like going. So we prayed a quick prayer for God to help us in our weakness. Our first stop was to see Marissa and her friend Natalie, who were studying for Chemistry together. As we chatted with both girls, we found that Natalie's grandmother had just passed away so thoughts about life after death had been a recent reality and of high importance. We also found that they had a vague Christian background. However, Natalie's brother had started going to a Christian church and she had noticed his drastic change of peace and happiness and she said, "This is something that I want." I said, "I would love to show you how you can have that within a personal relationship with God." So then we walked through the Gospel with great excitement and enthusiasm! Toward the end of the discussion, I asked them if they had ever made a decision to trust Christ to forgive them of their sins and invite Him to take control of their lives. They hadn't, but they wanted to. I showed them a prayer that they could pray if they truly wanted Christ in their lives. They then prayed it together and became followers of Jesus that night! A couple of weeks later another girl in our dorm named Katnia trusted Christ in a similar manner! Please pray for them as they begin their new relationships with Jesus. Praise God that He is working in such a powerful way in the dorm I am leading a bible study at and in college students' lives!

Guys Sierra Madrea Dorm

I could tell that the guys in this dorm partied a lot and probably didn't want much to do with God... This was my first impression while going around to the Sierra Madre dorm to follow up with the spiritual surveys that freshmen filled out. When I asked them if they wanted to go to our bible study I was met with answers like, "I am really busy", "I want to get used to my schedule first" or "I just filled out the info for the chance to win a free bike." Needless to say, it was a little discouraging, especially when only two guys came to our first bible study. Then in the middle of the first study things started to change. A guy named Aaron was hosting the study and his friend, Ted, showed up to say "hello". Ted quickly noticed something going on and we told him we were having a bible study and that he was welcome to join us. Ted said "I'm not really into that," but we kept asking him questions to get to know him better. After 5 or so minutes, Ted said, "You know what...since Aaron is here I will stay." Ted has since been the most dedicated to the study and seems to be the most excited about learning more about God and growing in his relationship with God. So the first week we ended up with 3 people at that study. The next week, we had 4 people and the third week we decided to re-ask everyone in the dorm if they wanted to come and three new guys showed up! We've consistently had about 6 to 7 guys come to the study. Even though I was reluctant at first with the Sierra Madre dorm, God has been moving!!

SAVE the DATE

We will be in Tucson
December 17
and will have a dessert party
that day.

Prayer Requests

Our marriage would continue to grow and thrive

Jenn as she starts to walk new believers through growing in Christ

It is a busy time for us with lots of conferences, travel, and just different things that we are in charge of on campus. So pray that we would cast our cares on Christ.
