CRU MISSIONARIES AT BUFFALO | Nov 2014

In the midst of a loud and crowded student union at the University at Buffalo, we get to hear about Andrew's story and life. Alex (a student leader in Cru) and I have been meeting up with Andrew for a couple weeks now. Andrew grew up in a Catholic household, and after hearing more about his spiritual beliefs, he realized he didn't really know how to have a relationship with God. We talked for a while and began to talk about Scripture. You should have seen the shocked look on his face and the light bulb go on when he said, "I have never heard that it is Jesus alone that saves us, and doing good things has nothing to do with it." He had to go to class and we are going to finish explaining the Gospel to him next week. Andrew has been loving coming to Cru stuff so much that he recently started bringing his roommate Jason, who is in a similar spiritual place as him. I just love when that happens! We would love your prayers as we continue to meet with them and explain what the Bible really says about having a relationship with Christ.

Check out this email I received today. Can't wait to meet up with this guy! Please be praying for Justin.

Hi Kevin,

I am really interested in joining CRU, but I do not know anything about bible or Jesus. Basically i am really new to this religion. Does cru offer any program to newcomers?

Thanks and I am looking forward to your reply.

How many pumpkins can fit in your car?

We were able to fit 80 pumpkins in Patrick's car for only $50!! This allowed us to do pumpkin carving outreaches on 3 different campuses. At Daemen College, the Resident Assistants slipped invitations to our pumpkin carving party under the door of every freshman. What a fantastic turn out with dozens of new faces, creating connections with students that may never come to a Cru weekly meeting or Bible study.
