Dear Ami,

"How can we know the Bible is reliable? How do we know Jesus really was a God? What about science?" These were the questions Josh was asking at Bible study one night.

I first met Josh at freshman orientation; he was very quiet and serious. I had to work hard to get him to crack a smile. He tells me now that he was mainly interested in CRU at orientation because it seemed like we had fun. So, it's not surprising that I didn't see Josh at our first weekly meeting but instead at the weekend trip to Niagara Falls. This turned into him attending our weekly meetings and then Bible study. Josh always had a lot of questions; you could see God doing something in his heart.

We have been studying Ephesians in Bible study and one evening we were looking at the scripture where we receive the Holy Spirit as a deposit of our salvation. At which point Josh asked, "How does someone become saved?" We walked through the Gospel. And after many questions Josh said he believed everything we had looked at and accepted Christ right there! Over this past month it has been a joy to see Josh growing in his understanding of God, to see a spark in his eye, and a more frequent smile. When Josh talked about his story he said, "If it weren't for CRU I wouldn't have even thought about God in College. I had so many questions about God that no one could answer. So, I wanted to give up on God until I got to CRU, where I got my questions answered,, which is why I put my faith in Jesus."

Your partnership enabled us to be on campus to meet students like Josh, ready to hear the life changing message of Christ. You are a continual source of joy and encouragement as you pray and give faithfully for our ministry. Thank you!

As 2012 comes to a close would you consider giving a special gift for our ministry? We've experienced a shortfall this year and are asking the Lord to provide $5,000. You have been so gracious over the years, and for that we truly give thanks to the Lord. If you are able to help, please make your check payable to "Cru" and mail it back to us in the enclosed envelope, along with the response card. If you would prefer to give a gift online, go to <http://give.cru.org/0561649> and follow the instructions.

Whatever you decide, our deep appreciation for you is unwavering. We are so grateful to the Lord for you.

Yours in Christ,

P.S. Would you jot down a couple of prayer requests on the response card? Our family would love to pray for those requests around our dinner table. Thanks.
