

END WITH A BANG!!

The end of the year came fast, but I guess that is what happens when you are having fun. So much has happened in the last month: we had our 6th outreach of the school year called "Where will you be in 10,000 years?", an all night bible study leaders training, a men's and women's event, an end of the year social, Kevin and I spoke at our weekly meetings, and I said good-bye to 4 senior girls. And we finished off the year celebrating with our bible studies; the girls made mix CDs and decorated pillow cases, and the men ate meat at a park!

But what I am most excited to share with you is the story of the new girl in my bible study. Alex is a tall girl with super curly brown hair, she is friendly, loves to laugh, and she grew up with no spiritual background. Alex is roommates with Brittney. A couple months ago, Brittney told Alex that she had decided to live with some Christian girls next year. This news grieved Alex as this had been part of a string of hard things that were going on her life. Her parents had recently separated, her younger sister was struggling and she was being eaten up by un-forgiveness toward her mom. Alex decided to prove to Brittney that she could be like her new roommates so she started attending our weekly meeting and bible study. After hearing a talk about loving your neighbor, Alex realized that the best way to love her neighbor is to forgive her mom. She had tried so many other times but that night she experienced Jesus and for the first time forgave her mom. That night she sent a text message to girls in the bible study saying "God is real"!! Alex gave her life to Jesus that night! When we were hanging out the other day, Alex told me that she wouldn't undo all the hard things in her life if she could because it led her to find God. Alex's life led me to say "God is real"!!

Alex & Brittney: still really good friends

10,000 Years survey

This was a campus wide outreach where students in the movement surveyed their peers and would ask "Where will you be in 10,000 yrs?" along with other eternity questions. Personally this is my favorite survey because it allows for great conversation. Whole dorms and fraternities were surveyed resulting in hundreds of spiritual conversations. Students were sharing their faith for the first time while others were thinking about the faith for the first time.

Summer Projects

There are 52 students going on summer projects this summer, 14 of them will be going overseas. Please pray as they will be going to places like East Asia, El Salvador, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, and the Middle East.

LAMB FAMILY UPDATE

This summer Kevin and I will be taking seminary classes in Orlando, FL. We are excited to spend time in God's Word and to be learners since we teach others the rest of the year. But we will be in Tucson for a couple days at the beginning of August. We plan on doing a luncheon so we would love to see you and for you to meet Abby. Speaking of Abby, she is doing great. She is 5 months old and she rolled over for the first time a week ago. I take her running in the jogging stroller now, she just loves being outside.

Thank you for being involved with our family!!

*Love ya,
Kevin & Jenn & Abby*
