

MORE LABORERS: God has called 3 new staff to join us in reaching Latinos in L.A.! Pray for them as they raise support.

SURPRISE VISIT: My mom and sisters totally surprised me with a visit to L.A. I was so excited to have them at my home for the first time—we had so much fun!

MAKING THE NEWS: The prayer walk at Long Beach State made the front page of the school paper, complete with a picture of our teammate Sandy!

Destino Los Angeles

RAISING UP A GENERATION OF LATINO LEADERS TO TAKE THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST TO THE CAMPUS, THE COMMUNITY, AND THE WORLD.

Movement

Seeing the mission and vision of Destino in action

Amir had agreed to sit down with Sean, one of our teammates, to talk about some of his questions about God and salvation. As he heard the gospel clearly explained, it began to click. But he still needed time to process and think about it all. When they decided to meet again, Amir asked if he could bring his friend Nick along. This time, Amir chimed in as Sean explained the gospel. Both men decided it was time to commit themselves to following Christ.

Sean invited both to meet regularly to begin studying the Bible and growing in their newfound faith. As they sat on campus chatting, Amir spotted a friend. "Hey Joey!" He called him over and explained that Joey had been thinking about spiritual things and had many of the same questions and hang-ups that he had experienced. Sean gave him a copy of "More Than a Carpenter" and told him it might help address some of his concerns. He excitedly accepted, surprised that someone else had thought about these things and written it all down.

A few weeks later, Joey decided to give in to God's pursuit and trusted Christ for his salvation. Shortly after, he realized that God had plans for him. As president of one of the largest Latino organizations on campus, Hermanos Unidos, he could influence dozens of men for the sake of Christ.

This is how a movement begins. God uses relationships and the power of changed lives to grow His kingdom. We are so excited to see it happening at Long Beach State!

Destino Winter Conference

Thank you for praying for our conference last month. God did some tremendous things there. Not only did God provide money and safety for the trip, many lives were changed. Students were encouraged in the mission on their campus. Some began healing from past hurtful experiences. Others began to embrace their cultural identity as a gift that God could use for His kingdom. Some people began a saving relationship with Christ through the witness of our students.
