Maddens to Mindanao

November was the arrival to Cebu Intl airport and its pretty much like I have never left . Regarding the traffic and people and pollution of the hog and smog (literally) but that comes along with the territory as the saying goes . At the same time I have been very excited to be back in the battlefield for our Lord and have a fresh perspective of what it is to humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and he shall lift you up

Happy New Year !!

Another challenge awaits with many decisions . Coming back to Mindanao is long awaited to the ministries we have started here and try to reestablish our connections with friends and family . Your prayers are well appreciated in our endeavors here to assist the Mindanao people in leadership by way of preaching and teaching the Book . I have to say I had a wonderful time being with lovely people in my time in the US and learned a lot from men who love the Book and are fighting the good fight of faith .
