

LIFE WITH LINDSEY

I ' M E N G A G E D ! ! !

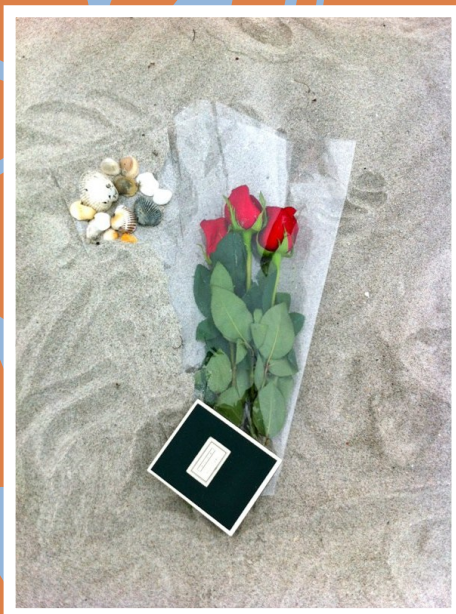

God has been very much at work in the lives of interns who work at WDW, 2 weeks ago we had over 30 interns at our Halloween outreach!

But I want to use this letter to highlight how God has been at work in my life and share with you about a day this past month that stands out a little bit above the rest! :)

OCTOBER 15, 2011

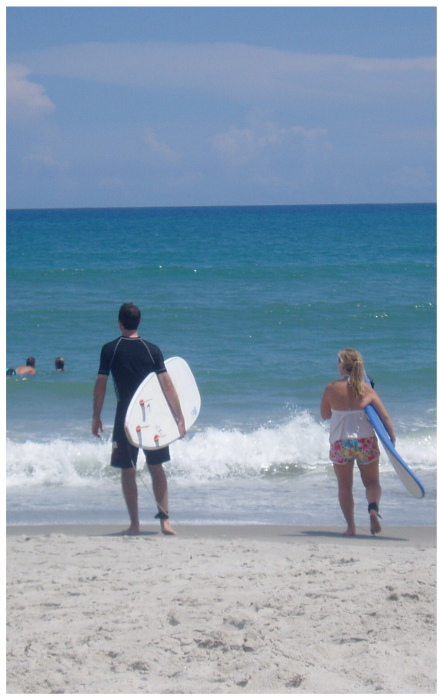

I've prayed that this day would come for quite some time, but my prayer in the midst of that has been that I would wait on the Lord. I have so wanted to trust Him in this journey of hoping, praying, desiring so much for God to bring a man into my life who would become my husband. Sometimes I waited well, other times not so well. But God has been faithful beyond my wildest dreams to bring me a man who is more than what I could have asked for. The past year and a half of dating has been a time of great fun, adventure and redemption as God has drawn us into deeper relationship with each other and with the Lord.

The day we were engaged Kevin took me to many places in Orlando that held great significance to us as we spent time reflecting on how the Lord has brought us together. We ended the day at the beach, where we came upon these roses and a box with a compass in it that had our names engraved on it. The compass was a reminder that God is the one who has been directing our lives and who we pray we will continue to trust to direct our lives together as we come together soon as one. After we opened the box with the compass Kevin shared some incredibly sweet things with me and got down on one knee and asked me to marry Him! Of course I said "Yes" through many tears! (Though I have to be honest that after he got down on one knee and said "Lindsey Renae Parrott, I love you..." I didn't hear the rest! Later, after I asked, he assured me I had said yes!) We are so excited to be married and serve the Lord together here at Walt Disney World as a married couple!

A SMALL PIECE OF OUR STORY

Our first picture together, heading out to surf... before we were dating!

Kevin Dennis and I met 2 years ago when we both came to work at the Campus Crusade for Christ Headquarters on a one year program. I was planning on going overseas after that year and Kevin was getting things ready to have a full time team work with Him as he began the year round ministry we have to interns in the college program at Walt Disney World. Kevin and I hit it off as friends early on in our program, but it wasn't for another couple of months that we both realized we were interested in the other. I remember thinking to myself when I first met Kevin and heard about his vision for what God was doing at Walt Disney World "Now, a man with vision like that I could follow, I need a man like that!" Who knew God would open my eyes to THIS man! God began to slowly shape our hearts for each other and we began dating in January of 2010. In the midst of that God was also re-shaping my heart to be a part of the ministry at Walt Disney World. As Kevin and I stepped into being on the same team together, and eventually leading a summer project together it was amazing to watch the Lord lead us through great adventures together along with great difficulties. He has truly been the one leading our relationship and as we have waited for Him on this journey to take us to the next step He has been consistently faithful! I would never have guessed 2 years ago that coming to Florida for "just one year" would lead me to this. But, I am so grateful that the One who pens my story is a much better writer than me!

PRAYER REQUESTS

Pray for Kevin and I as we step into preparing for marriage and planning a wedding.

Pray that we would figure out a date and location for the wedding soon!

Pray that we would continue to grow in our relationship with each other and the Lord through this journey.

Pray as we balance our ministry schedules and add to that the details of planning a wedding, that we would trust the Lord with our time and keep our eyes fixed on Jesus.

Pray that this would be an incredibly sweet and fun time for us and our families and that we would enjoy each other and stepping into whatever God has for us.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONSTANT PRAYERS AND SUPPORT!

Lindsey

A sweet friend brought us these to our engagement party! We wore them at Downtown Disney a few days later to show them off!
