Dear Greeting,

Christmas Conference—expect the unexpected

There is so much to share about this amazing week, but the one thing I want to share with you most happened on Saturday afternoon. The 96 students from Ball State that attended the conference partnered with First Samuel Christian Church to help feed those less fortunate who live deep in the inner city. Upon arriving at the church we partnered up and hit the streets with what we called “boxes of love”. The box is filled with food and other necessary items for those who live in this impoverished area. We were able to make a lot of people happy by providing for their physical needs, but that was not our only mission, we wanted to provide for their spiritual need by telling them about Christ.

Then the unexpected happened...

After delivering a box of love, Craig, another member of our staff team, was going through the gospel with an elderly women in her home and when he was finished she prayed to receive Christ. As amazing as that is, what happened next is even more incredible. Craig and the two girls that were with him were talking about the conversation they just had with the elderly women when Katie told Heather and Craig that as Craig was explaining the gospel she understood it and she prayed to receive Christ with the elderly women. You see Heather knew that Katie was not a Christian. Heather and Katie were childhood friends and Heather had been praying for Katie for a long time to come to Christ, but she never had. The Spirit of God was at work while Craig shared the gospel that afternoon. What may have seemed unexpected to us was God’s plan from the beginning by which he brought Katie into a relationship with himself.

- ◆ Please pray for Katie as she begins her journey with the Lord.
- ◆ Pray also for Heather as she helps Katie to know Christ more.
- ◆ Pray for all those living in inner city Indy who heard the gospel that weekend. Prayer that they would respond in repentance and faith.
- ◆ Pray that First Samuel Christian Church would be able to follow up with all the people we spoke to that afternoon.
- ◆ Pray for the guys pictured to the right: Rob, Ben I, Ben H, Zach, and Dustin. Pray that their experience at Christmas Conference would continue to penetrate their lives as together we seek to reach out to Ball State University with the love of Christ.

Thanks for all your prayers and support!
