“We have you down for May 8th, not March 8th!”

This was the response that Chasity received when she called at midnight to make sure the charter bus was still coming to take them down to Big Break in Panama City. A blank stare formed on her face as she looked at the 19 students who were huddled up in the sleeting snow trying to keep warm. The bus was supposed to arrive at midnight and drive them through the night down to Big Break, the Campus Crusade Spring Break Conference. The bus finally pulled into the parking lot at 4am. The week didn't start off great, but that was no indication of what God had in store for them that week.

Ashley and her friends arrived at the club ready for a great spring break night. The music was loud and the drinks were flying off the bar, but Ashley and her friends weren't there for that, they were there to engage fellow spring breakers in conversation about Christ.

After a few minutes of glancing around the club looking for someone to initiate a conversation with, Ashley zeroed in on a girl who was sitting alone. All Ashley got out of her mouth was “Hi,” and the girl blurted out, “Don't I know you from somewhere?” Sure enough the two live in the same dorm back at Ball State. Ashley has been asking God to use her to be a witness for Christ in her dorm this year, and He was faithful to respond to that prayer. Ashley led her dorm-mate to Christ that night after a lengthy conversation explaining the gospel!

It's amazing how God always seems to answer our prayers, but rarely in the way we would expect.

PRAYER CORNER

- ◆ PRAY THAT GOD WOULD CONTINUE TO GIVE OUR STUDENTS A HEART FOR SHARING CHRIST WITH THEIR FRIENDS.
- ◆ ASHLEY WOULD CONTINUE TO BE A LIGHT FOR THE GOSPEL IN HER DORM AND KNOW THE FAITHFULNESS OF THE LORD TO ANSWER PRAYER.
- ◆ OUR STUDENTS WOULD FINISH THIS SEMESTER WELL AND BE PREPARED TO WALK WITH GOD THIS SUMMER.

Thank you so much for partnering with our family to bring the good news of Jesus Christ to the world.
