

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

2011 has proven to be a year of God's continued blessings. We are amazed as we see God's hand directing this ministry to generous support.

We have seen God moving this past year as He expands reach out to the Northeastern Midget Association as them. We have added another track to the family with volunteers.

We continue to grow and develop our partnerships leading us as we partner with others to spread the Chaplains has been the source of many excited about what the new year holds.

In addition we continue to explore the opportunities faith based outlet for their competitors. There are ready to embrace.

Looking at the new schedules they continue to stretch out geographically. We are excited about that potential and the new lives we will have the opportunity to touch.

In the poem "One Solitary Life" it explains how God's plan is different than man's and how much of an impact one life can have. I encourage you to have a desire to serve God in your life and make an impact on those you meet.

We will continue to proclaim the Good News; a Savior, Christ the Lord. We are humbled by the generosity and faithfulness of those who have joined with us to reach the racing community as we serve in His Name. Your partnership with us makes everything we do possible.

Racing with Jesus Ministries continues to grow and we the racing community, thank you for all your prayers and the reach of the ministry. We solidified our effort to we saw God move and call out one of their own to lead Lee Speedway enjoying the weekly presence of ministry with other racing ministry groups. God has been good news. Our relationship with MRO and Finish Line opportunities to proclaim the Word. They also have us to support local tracks in their effort to provide a several new opportunities on the horizon that we are

Have a very Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year.
