

Greetings in the name of Jesus,

For the most part the racing season has come to an end. As with each season we experience highs and lows. It is in those difficult times that we realize who our genuine friends are. I am thankful for the friends that have helped us through this past racing season. Thank you for your dedication and commitment to partner with us to reach the racing community for Christ.

Racing is one of the sports that depend on volunteers for a good part of the work that goes into getting a car ready to race. Everyone connected with racing knows what it is like to give up sleep to work on the car. We are all familiar with seeing the inside of the garage more than the inside of our living room. We willfully give of ourselves to go racing.

This ministry is much the same, without the volunteers who give so much of themselves we would not be able to reach as far and wide as we do. I am truly thankful for all the dedicated volunteers that make Racing with Jesus Ministries one of the premier racing ministries in this country, to the glory of God.

There are many people who cross our path during the racing season and we would like to take this opportunity to say thank you. As I reflected on the season now completed some folks came to mind.

We are thankful for all the folks connected with the touring series we serve. To NASCAR, The World Racing Group, Valenti Modified Racing Series, NEMA, ATQMRA and the many local tracks for supporting us. We are thankful for the readers who read our column and when they see us let us know that they read it and use the contents. We are thankful for the racers, officials and team members who tell us they enjoy chapel and apply the sermons they hear. We are thankful for the drivers who thank us for praying with them and appreciate us being there. We are thankful for all of the crewmembers from each team that supports us and appreciate us for being there. We are thankful for all the fans, families and Churches that partner with us and make what we do possible.

Psalm 100:4-5; Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Thanksgiving gives us a time to reflect on all that God has blessed us with. We don't have to look very far before we find something we are thankful for. Who are you thankful for? Go to them and let them know that their sacrifice for you was appreciated.

Thank you for your support both in prayer and financially. We are looking forward to what God has planned for us.

Thank You and God Bless,
Rev. Don Rivers
