

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Tim and Ninette,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear John and Rachel,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Winston and Patricia,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Chad and Lisa,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Jeff,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Tim and Noelle,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bill,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Aaron,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear John and Becky,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Mark and Megan,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jim and Paulette,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Chris and Lee,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Val and Jana,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Craig and Danielle,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Matt and Angela,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Kyle and Carla,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Friends at Church of the Saviour,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Keith and Lynette,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Gary and Aunt Sue,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Chris and Jacqui,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Aunt Sandy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Jason and Aunt Julie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bob and Valeta,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Meg,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Jim and Aunt Sherri,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Matt and Elysia,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Friends at Faith Family Church,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jonathan and Christina,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Pat,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Gordon and Shelly,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Dave and Julie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Scott and Tina,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear AJ and Michelle,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Tom and Aunt Vicki,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bob and Brenda,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Tyler and Shannon,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Ben and Jackie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Tom and Debbie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Zac and Beth,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Mike and Sherri,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jan,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear James and Genny,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Adam and Kaleigh,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear J and Cathy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Pat,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Dan and Carly,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Chris and Marissa,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Harlan and Debbie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bruce and Shela,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Billy and Aubrey,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear James,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Nick and Maggie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Sara,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Fred and Donna,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Ross and Michelle,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bob and Peg,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jim and Debbie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jon and Andrea,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Johnathan and Michelle,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bill and Lori,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Nick and Ashley,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jason and Missy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jim and Ruth,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Don and Pam,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jennifer,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Frank,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Kurt and Angel,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on

the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Wayne and Karen,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Nick and Amy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Adam and Kate,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Bonnie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear David and Valerie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Alice,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Friends at The Foundation Church,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Uncle Karl and Aunt Kathy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Paul and Stephanie,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Tom and Judy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Kristen,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Steve and Tina,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Eric and Alexis,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jim and Beth,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Kirk,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Luke and Lauren,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Jim and Kim,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Kendra,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 28, 2024

Dear Robert and Judy,

"I've been looking for you," Adam called out to me (Jordan). "I'm a Muslim, but I'll never forget what you did for me. Things have been going so well for me, and I know it's because of the prayer you prayed for me," he continued. It wasn't the response I expected as Žan (a follower of Jesus we've mentioned throughout this year) and I met for a quick lunch to connect about making disciples of Jesus in his hometown.

Last November, our family visited a new Mexican restaurant—a rarity in Slovenia. While there, I struck up a conversation with an employee named Adam, an Egyptian who had moved here after marrying a Slovenian woman. After we finished our meal, I offered to pray for him, and he eagerly agreed, sharing his desire for God to bless his future and grant him success in life and work. Placing a hand on his shoulder, I prayed that Jesus would meet his needs and, above all, that Adam would come to know how deeply Jesus loves him.

I had stopped by a few times to try to connect with Adam, but he was never working when I dropped by. Imagine my surprise when he remembered a simple prayer from a year ago! After catching up, I had a chance to pray for him again. Before we left, Adam said, "I'm a Muslim, but now I believe in Jesus." What that belief fully means is still unfolding, but it's clear God is at work, drawing Adam closer to Christ.

My interaction with Adam also encouraged Žan, who left inspired to take steps of faith to bless and pray for others around him. As we reflect on the way God is at work here in the lives of Adam, Žan, and many others, we're reminded of the privilege of joining the Lord in His kingdom work in Slovenia. This Christmas, we're trusting God for $15,000 in year-end gifts to help expand His work across Slovenia. Your gift will allow us to stay focused on reaching Slovenes with the gospel by covering critical needs, including costs related to Selah's birth, vision therapies and asthma treatments for Raegan and Griffin, and the ongoing expenses of life and ministry here.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100, or another amount? Your gift can make a tangible difference, helping people like Adam experience the transforming love of Jesus.

You can give:

- By mailing a check to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope
- Securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>
- Or by stock transfer or non-cash gift by emailing Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We're deeply grateful for your prayers and partnership in reaching Slovenes for Christ.

God is moving in exciting ways, and we are blessed to make Jesus known alongside you. May his love and peace fill your heart this Christmas season.

With tremendous thankfulness,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Name: _____

Yes, I/we would like to invest in your ministry to enable you to continue reaching and equipping Slovenes for Christ in 2025.

☐ I/we will give a special gift of $_____ online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>.

☐ I/we have enclosed a check made payable to Cru.

Prayer Requests: _____
