What would it look like for everyone in Slovenia to be within a 15-minute drive of a community of others reading the Bible, obeying God's commands, and sharing Christ's love?

There are 212 municipalities (similar to small counties) in Slovenia, and we are asking God to plant a group in each one of those municipalities. We're believing God can use students who meet Jesus in college to take his message back to their hometowns and help start groups where their families, friends, coworkers, and neighbors can meet God through his Word.

How transformative would it be for everyone in Slovenia to know someone who truly follows Jesus? What if everyone had a person they could turn to with questions, to ask for wisdom, to pray with them and for them? How would families be transformed, how would schools and workplaces be different, how would relationships be healed and the bondage of generational sin finally be broken?

We've been asking the question, "What's it going to take?" What's it going to take for the gospel to advance across this country? What's it going to take for things to finally change, for a spiritual breakthrough to take place, for the lost to become found and the spiritually dead to be made spiritually alive? Ultimately the answer is simple: The Lord has to move. And so, we are raising our sails of prayer in preparation for God to bring the wind.

Like the father whose son has an unclean spirit in Mark 9, we are saying to Jesus, "I believe, help my unbelief!" We're trusting God with a vision only he can accomplish, and we're so grateful to be trusting him with you.

Would you continue to pray with us and for us, to trust God for great things—things we've never seen him do before but know he is fully capable of?

Jordan + Niki

Our team is excited and eager to trust the Lord together as we seek to help 212 Bible Discovery Groups form, one in each municipality, over the next five years.

Prayers + Praises

Praise God that he has provided Kaja's team of ministry partners for her to join with us this year and help us make disciples in Slovenia.

Pray that God would accomplish the vision of a Bible Discovery Group in every one of the 212 municipalities of Slovenia so that everyone here has a chance to discover who God is through his Word.

Pray for the Lord to bring spiritually open people across our paths who would be passionate about helping others know Jesus.
