“That’s what we need to be doing,” Benjamin exclaimed after hearing about Jesus’ command to make disciples of all nations.

Benjamin and Gašper are two students our teammates Brandon and Grant met last semester. They started meeting occasionally, and then the meetings became more frequent. Recently they’ve started studying the Bible together each week.

Both students have Christian backgrounds, and now they’re growing even deeper in their faith. They ask significant questions during Bible studies to better understand their salvation, God’s love, and God’s judgment. They come engaged and excited to learn, hungry to understand God’s word better.

At the end of their latest Bible study, they read Matthew 28:19-20, where Jesus gives the Great Commission. After discussing the passage, Benjamin, full of conviction and determination, said, “That’s what we need to be doing!” What a joy to see God work in such a powerful way in Benjamin’s heart, compelling him to be a part of reaching others with the message of Jesus.

Our team invited Benjamin to join us in sharing his faith with other students, because he said it’s difficult for him to talk with people here about Jesus. We’re excited to see Benjamin take this next step of faith, and we’re encouraged by his heart for sharing the life-changing message of the gospel with other students in Ljubljana.

We’re praying that the Lord will continue to work in the hearts of students like Benjamin and Gašper in Slovenia, giving them a desire to share their faith with classmates, friends, family, and coworkers, until every student in Slovenia knows someone who truly follows Jesus.

Helping fulfill the Great Commission in Slovenia through your partnership,

Prayers

- o Pray for Benjamin and Gašper. Pray they would continue to walk more closely with Jesus and have a greater burden to share their faith with their friends, family, and classmates.
- o Pray for God to continue working in the hearts of other students who are Christians in Slovenia. Pray He would give them a vision for reaching others with the gospel.

Praise

- o Praise God for how He is at work in the lives of students in Slovenia, not just bringing them to salvation, but using them in significant ways to reach others!
- o Praise the Lord for the growth of our small groups, new events, and Bible studies this semester.
