NOVEMBER 2018

Jesus and Prozac

November 29th we hosted a lecture with Dr. Warren Kinghorn for an evening to discuss the bridge between science and faith regarding mental health, medication and following God. It was a rich evening full of wisdom and depth. If you would like the audio recording I can get it to you. I think anyone who has a heart to help or invest in others' relationships with God would find a wealth of insight.

Pray for the Smiths

- Pray for students to walk with God as they enter a heavy exam season filled with stress and busyness.

- Pray for fruit from this event with Dr. Kinghorn and that the insight would help others find help in God's character and grace.

- GOVEMBER- students are considering summer missions as the Fall semester comes to a close. Pray for students to be available and consider God's heart for the world as they steward their summers.

- Pray for our End of the Year Ask letter that we will be sending out next week! We are praying to raise $8000 to help be in a good place for next year.

- Allie turned 3 years old Nov 9. She is a joy and talking up a storm.

Thank you for being a part of this ministry with us!

One of the main points was an emphasis on our identity. Dr. Kinghorn identified 5 truths we should reflect and meditate on: 1) We are loved by God. 2) We are known by God. 3) Christ in us defines us. 4) We are on a journey. 5) The ultimate destination is life with God. So if all that is true when we consider what we need in terms of help a great question is. "What is needed right now, to take the next step in my journey to be with God?"

350 people attended and we are hopeful our students will benefit from it greatly.

GO-vember

This month we emphasized going to the world and recruiting for summer missions with CRU. We used several weekly meetings and promoted opportunities throughout small groups.

Josh got to teach at our weekly meeting and Greek Life Matthew 28. The command to go is surrounded by God's character. "All authority is mine" and "I am with you" provide the means that make it possible. John Calvin said, "All true knowledge of God is born of obedience." The command to go is an invitation and opportunity to experience his character. Pray for students to ask God what he would want for them and how they could trust him with such a unique time of availability!
