Pray for the Smiths

-Parenting adds a whole new dimension to marriage. You have to communicate well and you have to work as a team. Pray for our intimacy and interaction as we handle the challenges of being a mom and dad.

- Pray for the follow-up conversations and fruit from the Ehrman Debate.

-Pray for our student leaders that they would finish well as they invest in new relationships and opportunities .

-Pray for students to go on summer project, and that they would consider how they are using their summer wisely.

-Harrison continues to thrive. Thursday, 1/26 he weighed 10 pounds. He is still healthy, happy, and hungry! Thank you for praying for him and us.

Encounter 2011

The Encounter 2011 conference drew more than 900 students in our region from colleges in Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. Students sacrificed four days of their break, giving up time with family, friends, and work to grow and be challenged in their faith. They had the opportunity to hear from a variety of Christian leaders and professors from around the country on the greatness of God and His call on our lives to go and make disciples of all nations.

Kayla reflected, "I am definitely challenged to think about how much I have really surrendered to God and how many rights I am demanding. God has asked me to yield my right to a relationship, to a long life, to my own time and to the approval of others."

MMKR 2012

Our annual men's retreat, ManMaker, received an overhaul this year. We moved it to January to allow more students to be available to come and not have as many academic commitments.

Many men learn by doing, so we planned service projects and created an obstacle course at night. Its design was to help students learn how their decisions and priorities effect their walk with God. It was one of the most fun weekends I've had here at UNC as 50 guys bonded through our time.

Ehrman / Wallace Debate

Bart Ehrman UNC professor and critic of the New Testament, and Dan Wallace, Professor of New Testament studies at Dallas Theological Seminary faced off in a debate February 1 here at Chapel Hill discussing the reliability of the New Testament (NT) we have today.

We are going to obtain audio and video of the debate as a resource for further study and discussion and put it on the website, ehрманproject.com.
