Praise and Prayer

- 1) Praise God for the "big" things of this past month: Passion Tokyo, "Holy Spirit"/FREE concert/workshop, start of production of Jesus Film in anime form, ICUHS had 40 students at last week's "Let's Talk!"
- 2) Praise God for the "little" things: my infection healed; Yuta from my Waseda futsal team came to church; Jeff, Mari and Ryuichi (Sakamoto) visited; Jean, Aya, and Mizwako (last month's new believers) involved in Bible study
- 3) Please continue to pray for our staff and students as we're on the "frontlines" and much is happening. My website has more info. Arigato gozaimasu!

✕ Making Jesus Famous ✕

[Jesus] asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am? And they told him, "John the Baptist; and others say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Christ." Mark 8:27-29

What?! Jesus doesn't need to be made famous! People already know who he is! That's what I thought when I heard the phrase "Making Jesus Famous" at Passion Tokyo (a world-wide student movement to make Jesus famous).

However, I soon realized that Jesus is often misrepresented and misunderstood. With all the ideas of who Jesus is (ideas a part from the Bible), people don't know that the REAL Jesus is alive and through his death and resurrection made it possible to have a relationship with Him today. This past month I was reminded of how AWESOME it is for me to be a part of an organization dedicated to making the real Jesus known. Japan Campus Crusade just produced mangas (Japanese comics) about how to know Jesus (called The Search), "Magdalena: Released from Shame" (a DVD), and is in the process of making an anime version of The Jesus Film. Each production is professionally done so during the production process the workers are learning about who Jesus is. I absolutely love that the gospel's going forth! But please pray for our staff and students as I believe we're also facing more spiritual warfare (see my blog for more info). Your prayers and support are valued and appreciated!! Thank you!
