

NEW ADDRESS, NEW ADJUSTMENTS

I've moved! I'm now living in my 5th Tokyo apartment and though I never enjoy the moving process (especially in Japan - it's crazy!) and if I had it "my" way, I would never move, I'm very grateful to now have two roommates (Kazuko, from Japan and Anita, from Taiwan - both are on staff) and new neighbors - American STINT girls! This is my first time having international roommates. I've already learned a lot about living like a "true" Japanese/Asian person already (there's many ways to be more efficient with space and energy!) and I'm very happy to not live alone anymore!

Although we're in the middle of the Japanese school calendar, the arrival of all our STINT teammates from America marks the beginning of a ministry calendar. I started my 5th quarter of Japanese classes this month, and though the language is difficult, I really love my classmates. Once again, I'm the only American in my class, but as we learn Japanese more and more, we can communicate more and more. I've been able to bring my classmates and other friends I've met around Tokyo to church recently.

Prayer Corner

As always, thank you for your prayers and support! Please continue to pray for Haruka, Kozue and Rina to get plugged into a local church. Being a part of local church body is always important, but especially in Japan.

And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

木枯らし一号 (kogarashiichigou):
last wind of autumn, first wind of winter

We already experienced our first winter wind!
Seasons change quickly here.
