Dear Friends and Family,

We are writing with an update on Emma and to once again express our deepest gratitude for your generous support and continued prayers. Emma and I traveled safely to Ecuador, and she is now residing with her grandmother and aunt in Quito while completing a series of assessments. I am back in Houghton with Tannia. The past few weeks have been filled with challenges and blessings, and we are thankful for the progress.

We do not yet have a full report or specific recommendations regarding the next steps for Emma's care. We anticipate receiving these in the next week or so. However, what we do know is that Emma is a neurodiverse child (a condition from birth). Understanding this has been affirming and illuminating as we seek the best ways to support her.

We remain deeply grateful to God for providing Emma a place in a world-class clinic, where she receives the professional attention and care she needs. We also want to extend our heartfelt thanks to those who stepped forward to cover the initial expenses for travel, medical evaluations, and clinic costs. Your generosity has been a tangible expression of God's provision during this time, and we cannot thank you enough.

Looking ahead, we know that ongoing treatment and therapy sessions will be necessary, especially the first twelve months of treatment, which are crucial. However, we do not yet have a clear picture of what the treatment will look like and the related costs. Once we have a detailed treatment plan, we will better understand the financial resources needed for the next phase of Emma's care. We humbly ask for your continued prayers as we navigate these decisions and trust God's provision for the future.

Your love, support, and encouragement mean the world to us. We will provide another update once we have more clarity on the next steps. Until then, please know how much we appreciate you and your role in our lives.

With deep gratitude,

Yours for Christ,
