

SEPTEMBER 2016 - MINISTRY UPDATE

WHO ME? TRAINING CHRISTIAN SCHOOL LEADERS

It appears, that once again in my life, God is doing a “NEW THING.” Well, a “new thing” that has actually been in the works and developing over the past 8 years.

If you had asked me 9 years ago whether or not I could picture a future in which I was completing a doctoral degree in Christian School Administration, was serving as a Consultant to, and Trainer of, Christian School leaders (especially in Latin America), and authoring a blog on the topics of academic and school leadership - I sincerely don't believe I could have envisioned it or even thought it possible. And yet, that is my current reality.

I am in awe and thankfulness to God for the amazing doors He continues to open - and humbled at the rather incredible ministry we are a part of. In all my years of work and experience with missions and ministries, I can honestly say I have never seen a greater impact for the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, than through the work and ministry of Christian schools.

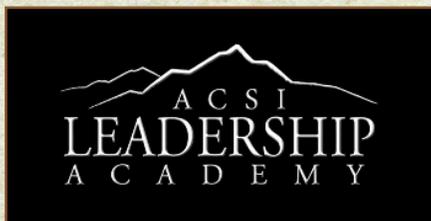

As I draft this update today, I am in Asuncion, Paraguay for the Association of Christian Schools International Leadership Academy. Over the next few days I will be training leaders from throughout Paraguay and Argentina. Then, next week, I will be in Panama City, Panama for the PAIDEIA 2016 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE. This conference will be attended by school leaders from over 10 countries.

During the conference in Panama, I will have the opportunity of leading sessions on “Developing a Christian Worldview,” “Authentic Faith Integration,” and “The Trust Edge for Schools.”

In the coming months I will be traveling to Mexico, working with several schools there. So, these are busy and exciting days of ministry! Thank you so much for your continued support, which allows me to encourage and support leaders of Christian schools throughout Latin America, who in turn are having an impact on thousands of students and parents for Christ! - Toby

If you haven't already, check out my blog at www.trustedschoolleader.com. The articles are written for leaders of independent schools. Tannia encouraged me to launch the blog this past January, and already it has opened doors for me to speak and interact with a wide range of school leaders. In fact, the blog already caught the attention of an international Montessori magazine, “Montessori View.”

The publisher of Montessori View, ETC Montessori, recently invited me to be a regular contributor to their online magazine (see www.montessoriveivs.com), and to participate in future live school leadership training events in Houston. Not sure where this taking our ministry. Please continue to pray with us as God leads us through some new “open doors.” Thank you!
