

A WORD FROM THE WENIGS

University of North Carolina & Duke University

Team Wenig visiting the White House

Please Pray with us for...

*Our preparations for our summer project in East Asia — recruiting students to join us, preparing to equip them & for the hearts of those we will meet and serve throughout the month of June in East Asia.

*For wisdom and understanding as we seek the Lord about the possibility of TeamWenig serving with Athletes in Action overseas.

*For Spring Semester wrap up — for students to stay engaged and finish strong as things like finals are approaching.

*For Athletes in Action's Ministry as we have our annual "Field Meetings" in Ohio March 21-26. We are excited for this time of strategic planning, vision casting & the chance to connect with our staff family from around the United States. We will be focusing on Hosea 6:1-3 & also a book on leadership by Crawford Loritts. We have been reading this book independently in preparation for our time together.

Meet Chase MacFarland...Over the past two years Kyle has had the opportunity to pour into a young man on the UNC golf team, Chase MacFarland. Chase has an incredible love for the Lord and is passionate about helping the lost know about Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life. Chase will graduate in May and marry a young lady (Rachel) that he met two summers ago at AIA's Ultimate Training Camp. Chase is doing a great job leading himself and Rachel as they pursue keeping Christ at the center of their relationship. It's been a fun privilege to journey with Chase as God has given us similar experiences of dating and being engaged long distance. It is such a neat opportunity to encourage and guide Chase as he becomes more and more the Man of God that he longs to be. This semester, God has been using the example of His servant David, the Shepherd King—a man after God's own heart (1&2 Samuel) to teach and transform as Kyle disciples Chase.

Asking Chase what AIA has meant to him throughout college, he said:

"UNC Athletes in Action was my first experience to a Christian fellowship community. After becoming a believer, I didn't know what living out my faith looked like. Then I showed up to AIA and saw what it meant to live for Christ by the way the people at AIA cared about me as a person and not just as an athlete. Without UNC AIA, I would not be the man I am today."

Annual Winter Retreat:

Here are a few of our athletes & staff men at the AIA regional retreat in VA. Here the speaker, Tim Lewis, shared powerful messages exhorting and empowering the athletes about how God recruits them to His team, then trains them up to be impact players for His glory!
