

A WORD FROM THE WENIGS

University of North Carolina & Duke University

Fall Ministry Highlight:

It has been REALLY encouraging to minister to our S.A.L.T (Servant Athlete Leadership Team) as they multiply themselves and serve on their teams. Our bi-weekly planning and equipping meetings have been great. We are talking about heart development and ministry skills. We read an article by author Henri Nouwen, "Moving from Solitude, to Community, to Ministry," as a foundation for our focus and have been looking for ways to apply this at UNC. A special highlight came at a recent meeting as the S.A.L.T. talked about praying more for their fellow athletes. They suggested committing to praying every Tuesday Night at 8:00pm – stopping what they are doing, wherever they are, and lifting up our campus and believing God to move! They are also going to spend time fasting and praying each semester. It is so powerful to see these athletes' hearts for the lost and see them walking by faith as God uses them for His glory!

"Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name." - Psalm 86:11

(We have been praying Psalm 86 over AJ as his life verse)

AJ is stylin' in his new shades...
Praise God for this boy's joyful spirit!

Where is She Now?... Some of you may remember us sharing about Eugeneia, (pictured above) a young lady from the UNC Rowing team. She graduated last May and is serving the Lord in amazing ways! Because of your investment in her foundation, and along with our hopes that you would continue to pray for her, we wanted to share an update with you. Eugeneia and Jayne began meeting for discipleship in Fall of 2007 after a "team meeting" Jayne had with the Rowing team. Eugeneia rededicated her life to Christ and began walking with Him after living a prodigal life for a season. Luke 15:11-32 (the story of the Father's abundant and faithful love and forgiveness) holds a very special place in Eugeneia's heart. She came with us to LA for Urban Project in summer '08. During that experience, God was moving in her heart in ways we couldn't have anticipated. Throughout last year He laid it on her heart to return to the Skid Row homeless community to be His hands and feet. She has been serving as a teacher in an after-school program called "Say Yes." She is working with 3rd thru 5th graders as well as some middle and high school students. When she isn't busy with this program, she is helping our AIA staff at University of Southern California by discipling several women athletes. THANK YOU for how your prayers have, and will continue to, bless her. If you want to follow more of what God is doing in and through Eugeneia, she updates people at www.eugeniadelbono.blogspot.com.

Daddy and The Little Sweet Pea
on Halloween...AJ seems thrilled.
