

Reaching the campus through the platform of sport:

We continue to be in awe of the ways God uses sports to bring glory to Himself! We experienced it in a special way as we started Fall Semester. Cru at UW-Madison invited some of the guys Kyle has been discipling from the football team to share with the rest of the student body. Two of the featured athletes, Chris & Sebastian, shared about how their relationship with Jesus has impacted their lives and how they compete in their sport. They did an awesome job boldly sharing their testimonies and courageously using their platform for God's glory! Sebastian shared authentically about the difficult things God has been bringing him through. His Dad, who was a significant part of his faith foundation, passed away when he was 17 years old. He shared, "My father laid a foundation & gave a pathway to us to not only have Jesus as a vessel, but to truly understand who He is as a driving force...I've struggled without my Dad to put his hand on my shoulder and guide me. Its caused me to need to be vulnerable and ask for help- I'm learning to do that in prayer... accepting Jesus when you aren't perfect and letting Him work in you and through you...Ultimately God's got a purpose and a mission in your story. Don't fear! God has given you power to share the Gospel.

His blood is perfect and its an opportunity to share that to change someone's life. Its a blessing."

What a powerful message pointing his peers to trusting in the Lord and depending on Him as their power source in the battle!

Chris also shared with authenticity as he talked about the growth process being messy. He said, "Don't be discouraged- There is gonna be a struggle- its a big adjustment coming to college, but when we go through this, we are tested and we can rely on Jesus.

You will feel like you failed Him- when your actions don't match your thoughts - You have an opportunity to grow...Failure is a step to get you where you want to be." What a great reminder that in our weakness He is strong and He is the Savior we need moment by moment!

Its a blessing to journey with guys who are seeking the Lord and trusting His process & promises.

"Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Philippians 1:6

Please continue to pray for the athletes and coaches' spiritual growth with UW Football!

Thanking God for:

- Curiosity and Conversations!
This time of year is full of follow up of new contacts and connections. We are so encouraged by the interest and questions people are having as they seek the Lord!
- The mixture of faithful returning students and new friends joining in our large group multi-sport Bible Study, Badger Life.
- Opportunities to share the Good News with coaches & athletes!

Trusting God for:

- For the soil of people's hearts to be soft to the seeds of the Gospel.
- That seeds planted would grow deep roots and bear fruit that glorifies God.
