The Next Step... We take our next steps in following the Lord to Australia Saturday, September 18th! After months of preparing and anticipating, it's FINALLY here!

As we shared with you back in March, the Lord has had us in a process of following Him to the harvest fields in Australia. We had NO idea of the needs there when we first felt God calling us internationally. He used a divine appointment between Jean Anderson (Jayne's new staff trainer) and our AIA staff in Sydney to show us! When Jean was in Sydney taking their daughter to Hillsong International Leadership College, she stayed with Gary & Jess for a few days. Multiple times they asked her "if she knew of ANYONE who might be interested in serving short term and helping them" – they were overwhelmed by all the needs in the sports world for the Gospel. Little did Jean know, but while she was there, we were calling her husband, Leif, and asking him to pray for us to have wisdom and direction in the international placement process. Isn't God amazing in how He reveals His purposes and plans if we are willing to wait and trust?! The Lord has been faithful to answer many prayers in the Visa application process and in our transition from North Carolina to Sydney. We have been on the move and living out of suitcases since May, but have felt His peace and presence every step of the journey.

As we had shared when we got back from East Asia, our experience there was incredible and transforming. We have since been preparing for Australia in a variety of ways. We have been doing LOTS of paperwork, attending conferences for cross cultural ministry training, as well as wrapping up loose ends like selling cars and changing phone plans. We have also been enjoying quality time with our families in PA & WI. Thank YOU for the many ways you bring encouragement and blessing to us in this process!

*With love and thanks!
Kyle, Jayne & AJ*
