From Young Believer to International Missionary

Jenny recently had the honor of speaking at the wedding reception for Katrina, a former disciple at Butler University. It's humbling and encouraging to realize how far God has brought Katrina since she and Jenny first met. Jenny began discipling Katrina in 2013 during her sophomore year. What Katrina gleaned from Jenny is a passion for God's word, being unashamed about her faith, and walking in the grace and truth of the gospel.

Jenny encouraged Katrina to go on a Cru summer mission in 2014. It was there that God instilled in Katrina a compassion for others to find new life in Christ. At Jenny's continued encouragement, Katrina joined Cru staff at Butler for two years. She spent the previous school year in South Asia ministering on campus to unreached people. Now Katrina is newly married and continuing her ministry by reaching international students here in the states. It's a joy to journey with our students and see them become Christ-centered laborers!

As we start another school year, it's our prayer God would continue working through our ministry to raise up servant leaders like Katrina!

"I'm now a missionary reaching international students, in large part, because of Jenny's influence in my life." - Katrina H.

An email from Katrina back in 2016:

"Jenny, I wouldn't be where I am in my walk with Christ without you. I wouldn't have a heart for women and spreading the gospel. I FOR SURE wouldn't be interning this year. All I can say is thank you. Thank you for living sacrificially and putting other's needs far above and beyond your own. Thank you for sticking it out with me when I only wanted to be poured into, and not pour out. Thank you for opening your life to me as a wife, mom, discipler, friend, and daughter of God. You're an inspiration to me, and I can't thank you enough for teaching and loving me relentlessly!"
