

Ministry “Meet & Greet” - Part 2

Meet some of Jenny’s disciples!

Sarah is a junior pharmacy student and member of Tri Delta sorority at Butler University. Sarah enjoys spending time with her sisters, while looking for ways to encourage them to find love and worth from Jesus. A few weeks ago, Cru hosted a women’s event called “The Pressure’s Off” where girls involved in the movement could invite their non-Christian friends to hear a special message about receiving unconditional love from the Lord. Sarah took a step of faith and invited some of her sisters to the event, pictured right (Sarah is top right). Sarah was bubbling over with excitement when the girls she invited actually showed up! It was a classy evening where girls could dress up, enjoy tea and dessert served by the men in the movement, and have fun with a dance party at the end! A number of comment cards mentioned they didn’t know Christians could have fun too! Pray for Sarah to continue trusting God to work in the hearts of her Tri Delta sisters amidst a very busy schedule.

Audrey, pictured left, is a junior pre-med student and RA (Resident Advisor) at IUPUI, which is located in downtown Indianapolis. One of her greatest strengths is listening well to others, seeking to understand their perspective and background, and sharing about hope that can be found in Jesus. Even though her academic career is far from over (she recently took the grueling 7-hour MCAT), she prioritizes people and invests in relationships. She often takes the time to walk to the Cru meeting with a few freshmen from her dorm! Would you pray with me that Audrey grows in her passion to incorporate her faith into everyday conversations? Also, pray that God’s Spirit gives her insight and wisdom about how to use her passion for medicine to serve the Lord in the future!

Stephanie is a sophomore pharmacy student at Butler who enjoys running. A way we build our friendship is by running together on Friday mornings. Stephanie will occasionally invite a running teammate along for our long runs. It’s a fun way to model how to ask good questions about their life and spiritual background! Pictured right is Stephanie and I after a half marathon recently; she pushed me to run my PR! One of the things I love about discipling (spiritually mentoring) women, is that we get to share our lives with each other. Pray for me to have wisdom in counseling these women, and many others, in how to make their faith foundational to everything in their lives.
