

Merry Christmas!

Isn't that a fun picture on the front?
My roommates and I consider each other brothers, and call ourselves the "Men of Mill Domain." 2012 has been an overall good year, with many encouraging but also difficult things happening. Pray that I cherish the relationships God has given me here in California.

Once again, your partnership has been critical this year. Thanks for your joyful giving and prayer. It has encouraged me more than you know.

May your Christmas be marked by sincere adoration of King Jesus.

With gratitude,
