Sending Seniors

One of the biggest paradoxes of campus ministry is the joy and sorrow at the end of every school year. Every time May comes around, it's bittersweet to see our seniors graduate. We're sad to lose their leadership and wisdom, but we're excited for what's next in their journey with the Lord!

Isaak Newhouse - Football

"Since I set foot on Butler's campus freshman year, AIA was an integral part in my relationship with Christ. AIA has helped me grow in all areas on my life, especially spiritually. I learned that I don't have to work for God's acceptance; He's already accepted me through the grace given in Christ (Ephesians 2:8-10). As I reflect on my time at Butler, I see huge growth in myself and the man I am becoming in Christ. The foundation that Butler AIA has helped me build will be an incredible launchpad as I start grad school in the Fall, and hopefully a future career in accounting."

Sydney Buck - Basketball

"Being a student-athlete can be very difficult at times. Being part of AIA helped me get through some tough times. I connected with other athletes in AIA who are now good friends of mine, and which I can lean on in difficult times, even after graduation. The job search process was stressful, but trusting God through it was comforting. I want to continue trusting Him my whole life because He is trustworthy!"

Jordan Lucio - Baseball

"AIA has been a great resource for me at Butler. It helped me continue in my walk with God even with a busy schedule. This past year is definitely when I grew the most spiritually, and AIA played a big role in that. I'm not sure what's next, but I'm confident the plan is in God's hands. I'm comforted every morning by Jeremiah 29:11 that He plans to give me hope and a future!"
