Jenny's Impact This Year

As another school year comes to a close, we always like to reflect back and praise God for how He worked in the hearts of student-athletes across Indianapolis. The past two months have been unusual, but it won't keep us from celebrating God at work! A specific way we want to celebrate with you is how God used Jenny's discipleship group to help her girls from Butler University grow throughout the year.

Alli Miller, Butler Cross Country

"Jenny helps and guides me in so many ways. As I wrestle through my doubts, she listens well. When we discuss life circumstances, she's able to pinpoint unhealthy patterns and encourage me with Biblical truth. She points me to helpful and timely resources for my overall growth. In times of feeling lonely or weary, she sits with me and knows the right words to say in the appropriate ways. Jenny lives out compassionate care for others with a deep desire for connecting them to the Lord. As a result, I'm inspired to help others in the same ways she helps me.

I cannot begin to express my gratitude for how Jenny has intentionally poured into my life! She is a humble and gifted servant-leader who is making an impact for God's Kingdom. I'm excited to see how the Lord continues to build this movement of Christ followers among college athletes through Jenny's ministry to me and others!"

Katie Soderstrom, Butler Soccer

"Jenny, thank you for leading such an amazing discipleship group this year! I've loved learning and applying God's word together. Having a faithful group of girls who are open and honest about personal and faith struggles is huge. It's so refreshing to have a place I can be fully known and fully loved. I've been challenged and encouraged through your leadership.

Thank you for meeting with me, giving great advice, and always listening to my heart. You have no idea how impactful you've been in my life! I am more prepared to reach out to my teammates, and be bold with my faith. I am so grateful for you!"
