Allie Carmichael, Swimming

"From freshman year until now, I've sought out Jenny's wisdom and guidance to help me through the ups and downs of college. She celebrated with me in the highs, counseled me in the lows, and loved me well through it all. I'm thankful for a strong and influential leader who points me to the Lord and His wisdom. She always speaks the truth in love and calls us to higher and better things for God's glory. I'm a very different person from when I started at Butler, and I can attribute that to the ways God has worked through Jenny and the whole ministry of Athletes in Action at Butler."

Katherine Olsen, XC & Track

"Jenny helped make Butler feel like home through her kind actions and intentional pursuit of me. Through the discipleship group Jenny led, she helped me and other female athletes better understand our role as Christ's ambassadors. Jenny challenged me to actively bring the good news of Jesus to the people around me, not waiting for them to come to me. In these past months, she has helped me think through what I will do to keep my faith flourishing after graduation and when my running career is done. I'm grateful to have Jenny in my life and for her impact on me and many others."

Remi Beckham, Track & Field

"Jenny has been a rock in my life and helped me build on my foundation of faith just by being herself. The discipleship group helped me grow tremendously and provided the community I was missing. Her faithfulness and commitment to me and the girls is an incredible blessing. Her knowledge of the word increased my awareness of its power and grew my desire to obey the Lord. Growing closer to Jenny has brought me closer to God. I'm very thankful for Jenny and her heart to serve and love Butler athletes."
